

North Dakota Public Fishing Waters

Data as of: October 19, 2018

The following includes all public fishing waters, listed alphabetically by county name. Each listing includes travel directions, status of the fishery for the upcoming season, and fishing piers (listed if present). Larger systems have inset maps to give better detail for boating access locations of that system. Each location listing includes travel directions, facilities present, and managing authority. Most of North Dakota public fishing waters have a boat ramp (concrete and/or metal). If a boat ramp is lacking at a specific water body, it is listed as 'no ramp'. Hyperlinked Public Waters will open a PDF showing an aerial photo fishing map of the surrounding area and facilities available. The map may also include depth contours.

Little Heart Pond (Morton County): 11 miles south of Mandan on ND Highway 1806. Catchable-sized rainbow trout stocked in spring. (No ramp).

Nygren Dam (Morton County): 6 miles north, 1 mile east, 3 miles north, .5 miles east of Flasher. Catchable-sized trout stocked in spring and small bluegill and largemouth bass present. (Fishing pier).

Porsborg Dam (Morton County): Northwest Mandan. Rainbow trout (and other species) may be stocked in spring. (No ramp).

Sweet Briar Lake (Morton County): 18 miles west of Mandan I-94 Exit 134. Fair numbers of walleye, pike, perch, bluegill, crappie and largemouth bass. (Fishing pier).

Mountrail County

Clearwater Lake (Mountrail County): 2 miles east, 3.8 miles north, .5 miles east, 3 miles north-northeast, .5 miles east of Stanley. Decent numbers of 13-14 inch walleye, abundant small northern pike. Yellow perch also present in low numbers.

Stanley Pond (Mountrail County): Northeast side of Stanley. Significant winterkill most winters. Stocked annually in spring with adult channel catfish and catchable-sized rainbow trout. (Fishing pier).

Stanley Reservoir (Mountrail County): 1 mile south of Stanley. Abundant small northern pike.

White Earth Dam (Mountrail County): 6 miles north, 8.5 miles east, 2 miles south of Tioga. Fair number of walleye and northern pike. Low numbers of yellow perch, black crappie and some large bluegill. White suckers are fairly abundant and a management problem. (Fishing pier).

Nelson County

Lake Laretta (Nelson County): 2 miles west, 3 miles north of Michigan. Good of medium-sized pike, with some pushing 15 pounds. Perch that survive pike predation are large but uncommon. Increasing walleye densities, with some nicer-sized fish. (No ramp).

McVile Dam (Nelson County): 1 mile east of McVile. Some larger walleye, largemouth bass and pike available, but at low densities. Perch and bluegill abundant, but most are typically small. (Fishing pier).

Silver Creek Dam (Nelson County): 4 miles west, .5 miles south of McVile. Small reservoir with a winter pike fishery. Perch also present, but are usually less than 9 inches long. Bullheads and suckers are a problem for the sport fishery. (No ramp).

Nelson County

Stump Lake (Nelson County): The walleye population in Stump Lake is doing well. There are a variety of sizes available, with good numbers of fish from 15 to 20 inches long. Larger fish are doing well too, as their numbers are well above average.

Northern pike numbers are below average right now, but they are still relatively abundant in Stump Lake. Most of the pike are between 28 and 34 inches long, but there are smaller and larger fish present.

The numbers of yellow perch in Stump Lake are quite good right now. However, many of them are still smaller than 8 inches long. Overall, there should still be good perch fishing opportunities in 2018 and 2019, as the numbers of 8 inch and larger perch are a bit above average.

The white bass numbers in Stump Lake increased greatly recently due to the strong hatch they had in 2015. Most of them will likely be between 13 to 15 inches long during 2018-2019.

Northwest Area -- No Public Boating Access

East Central Area -- No Public Boating Access

Tolna Landing (Stump Lake) -- 3 miles north of Tolna. (Gravel access road, fish cleaning facility, security lights, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- Tolna Community Club).

Stump Lake Park -- 11 miles south, 1 mile west of Lakota. (Paved access road, fish cleaning facility, developed and primitive camping, security lights, picnic shelter, trash receptacles, concession, lodging, RV dump station, fishing pier -- Nelson County Park Board).

Tolna Dam (Nelson County): 1 mile south, 2 miles east of Tolna. Some larger walleye and fair densities of pike under 5 pounds. Perch numbers fairly low.

Whitman Dam (Nelson County): 1.5 miles north, 3 miles east of Whitman. Keeper-sized perch, with most under 10 inches. Fair fishing for pike and walleye. Crappie population is good, with some larger fish. (Fishing pier).

Multi-County Waters

Bois De Sioux River (Not Specified County): Southeast corner of state in Richland County. Good catfish and walleye populations. (No ramp).

Cannonball River (Not Specified County): In Slope, Hettinger, Grant and Sioux counties. Carp abundant most of the time. Some walleye, northern pike and catfish during spring spawning. (No ramp).

Devils Lake (Not Specified County): The walleye population in Devils Lake continues to do well. Reproduction in recent years has generally been good and there are many fish that are less than 15 inches long. The numbers of walleye that are 15 to 20 inches long has dropped below average for the first time in many years. This is due to three consecutive year classes that were relatively low from 2013 to 2015. There are still fish in this size range, but anglers will probably have to fish longer to catch them than normal. The numbers of walleye over 20 inches long is a bit higher than the long-term average.

Northern pike will continue to provide excellent angler opportunities in 2018-2019. The northern pike in Devils Lake are doing very well and continue to reproduce naturally. Pike are abundant and can be found throughout the lake, particularly in the shallower areas. Most of the northern are between 23 to 30 inches, but trophy-sized pike are known to be present in the lake. Northern are a very under-utilized fish in Devils Lake, so anglers should not be shy about keeping their limit of pike.

The numbers of catchable-sized yellow perch in Devils Lake seems to be lower than last year. The numbers of perch from 8 to 12 inches are a little lower than the long-term average. The numbers of jumbos over 12 inches is below average as well. The numbers of perch smaller than 8 inches is above average. Overall, there should be perch for anglers to pursue in 2018-2019, but their average size will likely be on the smaller end of the keeper range.

White bass numbers have increased greatly recently and their numbers are currently very high. However, most of them are from the strong hatch in 2015. Most of them will probably be between 12 to 14 inches long in 2018-2019.

Heart River (Not Specified County): In Stark, Grant, and Morton counties. Abundant carp and buffalo most of the time. Some walleye, northern pike and catfish during spring spawning. (No ramp).

James River (Not Specified County): Southeastern part of the state. Shore-fishing opportunities where lowhead dams and bridge crossings congregate pike and walleye.

Knife River (Not Specified County): In Dunn and Mercer counties. Connected to the Missouri River, so a variety of fish species available. (No ramp).

Little Missouri River (Not Specified County): Southwestern part of state. Abundant catfish up to 10 pounds. Some sauger and walleye during spring spawning. (No ramp).

McClusky Canal (Not Specified County): Central part of state in McLean, Burleigh and Sheridan counties. Excellent smallmouth bass fishery, with some larger fish. A variety of fish species available to anglers. (No ramp).

Missouri River (Not Specified County): The fishery downstream of Garrison Dam to the South Dakota border was greatly impacted following the flood of 2011. The Garrison Reach upstream of Bismarck has been slow to recover and still suffers from depressed forage conditions. Most walleye from the abundant 2009 year-class are now 18-plus inches and reproduction was decent from 2014-16, so smaller walleye are present in good numbers.

Garrison Dam Tailrace continues to produce trophy brown and rainbow trout. Channel catfish are abundant and underutilized throughout the entire reach.

Garrison Dam Tailrace -- Directly below Garrison Dam. (Paved access road, fish cleaning facility, developed camping, security lights, trash receptacles -- U.S. Army Corps of Engineers).

UPA Site (Stanton) -- Just west of UPA Power Plant on ND Highway 200A near Stanton. (Paved access road, security lights, trash receptacles -- City of Stanton).

Washburn -- On east side of the Missouri River near Washburn, north of ND Highway 200A bridge. (Paved access road, fish cleaning facility, primitive camping, security lights, trash receptacles, RV dump station, fishing pier -- Washburn City Park Board).

Sanger (Cross Ranch) -- Just east of Sanger townsite on west side of Missouri River. (Gravel access road, primitive camping, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- North Dakota Parks and Recreation).

Multi-County Waters

Steckel Boat Landing (Wilton) -- 22 miles north of Bismarck on ND Highway 1804, or 5.5 miles west, 1 mile south, and 1.5 miles west of junction of U.S. Highway 83 and ND Highway 36. (Paved access road, primitive camping, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- Burleigh County Park Board).

Hoge Landing -- On east side of the Missouri River near Bismarck, 6.4 miles north of I-94 bridge on River Road, then .7 miles west and 1.5 miles south/southwest. (Gravel access road, no courtesy docks, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- Bismarck Parks and Recreation).

Kniefel (Misty Waters) Landing -- On east side of the Missouri River near Bismarck, 3 miles north of I-94 bridge on River Road, then 1 mile west. (Paved access road, fish cleaning facility, security lights, picnic shelter, trash receptacles, concession -- Burleigh County Park Board).

Grant Marsh Bridge -- On east side of the Missouri River near Bismarck, south side of the I-94 bridge on River Road. (Paved access road, security lights, trash receptacles -- Bismarck Parks and Recreation).

Fox Island Park -- From Washington Street, .75 miles west on Riverwood Drive (1 block south of Expressway), 1.5 miles south and .5 miles west. (Paved access road, fish cleaning facility, security lights, trash receptacles -- Bismarck Parks and Recreation).

Little Heart Bottoms (Schmidt) -- 11 miles south of Mandan on ND Highway 1806, then 1 mile north. (Paved access road, trash receptacles -- Morton County Park Board).

Kimball Bottoms (Desert) -- 8 miles south of Bismarck on ND Highway 1804, then 2 miles south. (Paved access road, primitive camping, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- Burleigh County Park Board).

Graner Bottoms (Sugar Loaf) -- 19 miles south of Mandan on ND Highway 1806, then 1 mile east, or about 3 miles north of Huff. (Paved access road, fish cleaning facility, developed and primitive camping, security lights, picnic shelter, trash receptacles, RV dump station -- Morton County Park Board).

Lake Oahe (Not Specified County): The fishery downstream of Garrison Dam to the South Dakota border was greatly impacted following the flood of 2011. Fortunately, the upper Oahe fishery recovered much better than the Garrison Reach. Forage conditions have improved and growth rates of walleye have followed. Most walleye from the abundant 2009 year-class are now 20-plus inches and reproduction was very good from 2014-16, so smaller walleye are abundant. Pike abundance has declined from recent years, but average size is excellent, with many fish in the 15- to 20-pound range. Channel catfish are very abundant and vastly underutilized throughout upper Lake Oahe.

Maclean Bottoms (Gun Range) -- 14 miles south of Bismarck on ND Highway 1804, then 2 miles south. (Paved access road, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- Burleigh County Park Board).

Hazelton -- 31 miles southeast of Bismarck on ND Highway 1804 or 13 miles west and 2 miles north of Hazelton. Campground located just south of boat ramp. (Paved access road, developed and primitive camping, security lights, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- U.S. Army Corps of Engineers).

Lake Sakakawea (Not Specified County): Walleye fishing was exceptional in 2017 and should remain so in 2018. High forage abundance and good habitat conditions have allowed Sakakawea walleye to maintain good body condition, good growth rates and high abundance. Overall walleye abundance is the highest documented in the last 45 years due to several strong year-classes in recent years. Anglers will find excellent numbers of 15- to 20-inch fish in 2018, with good numbers of larger fish present.

Northern pike abundance has declined from record highs the last couple years, but still remains exceptional. However, the population is maturing and average size is increasing. Pike exceeding 15 pounds will become more common in 2018 and the next few years.

Smallmouth bass population remains good and anglers will continue to encounter good numbers of fish. The population also contains good numbers of whopper-sized fish.

The Missouri River salmon fishery was greatly affected by high water in 2011, but has recovered well. Salmon fishing in 2016-17 was good and should remain so in 2018. Young male salmon were very abundant in the 2017 spawning run, suggesting that the 2016 year-class is strong and fishing should be good over the next couple years. With a strong smelt forage base, salmon fishing should remain good in coming years.

Lewis And Clark State Park -- 16 miles east of Williston on ND Highway 1804, then 3 miles south. Multi-County Waters

Wild Rice River (Not Specified County): Southeastern part of state. Moderate numbers of catfish, walleye and pike. (No ramp).

Yellowstone River (Not Specified County): Primarily a spring and fall fishery for sauger and walleye, abundant channel catfish. Many other species present.

Sundheim Park -- 2 miles west of Cartwright on ND Highway 200, on west side of Yellowstone River and south side of ND Highway 200. (Paved access road, no courtesy docks, security lights, picnic shelter, trash receptacles -- Yellowstone Township).

Oliver County

East Arroda Dam (Oliver County): 1 mile east of Fort Clark ND Highway 200A. Decent crappie numbers, with some quality fish. Pike and perch numbers increased in recent years, with mostly smaller fish. Earthen fishing piers for shore-fishing access.

Nelson Lake (Oliver County): 5 miles east, 3 miles south of Center. The best largemouth bass lake in the state. Open water year-round allows warmwater fish to grow better than in other lakes. Abundant quality-sized bluegill and crappie. (Fishing pier).

Oliver County Sportsmen's Pond (Oliver County): 4 miles south, .5 miles west of Center. Rainbow trout stocked annually. (No ramp).

Pembina County

Renwick Dam (Pembina County): 6 miles west, 1 mile north of Cavalier. Mostly pike and perch, with some crappie. Most crappie under 8 inches. Perch numerous, but typically smaller. White suckers and bullheads abundant. (Fishing pier).

Pierce County

Antelope Lake (Pierce County): 6.7 miles north, 3 miles east, 1 mile north, 2 miles east, 2 miles south of Anamoose. Nice-sized perch abundant. Very good number of walleye, with some larger fish.

Balta Dam (Pierce County): .5 miles south of Balta. Recent winterkills have reduced the number of northern pike.

Buffalo Lake (Pierce County): 4 miles west, 1 mile south of Esmond. Winterkills often and pike fishing opportunities occur when winters are mild. Currently has a high pike population, with most fish about 24 inches. (Fishing pier).

Clear Lake (Pierce County): 6 miles east, .7 miles south of Anamoose. Good numbers of quality-sized walleye and perch. (No ramp).

Davis Lake (Pierce County): 2 miles west, 1.5 miles south of Balta. Good number of small northern pike.

Lesmeister Lake (Pierce County): 3 miles south, 3 miles west, 1.3 miles north of the intersection of ND highways 3 and 19. Newer walleye lake, with good numbers of small- to medium-sized fish. (No ramp).

Sand Lake (Pierce County): 4 miles north of Pleasant Lake. Good pike fishery, with fish commonly up to 5 pounds. Perch numbers good, but most less than 8 inches.

Ramsey County

Cavanaugh Lake (Ramsey County): 9 miles north, 1 mile west, .5 miles north of Devils Lake. Winterkills often, but fish repopulate the lake when high spring runoff occurs. Walleye and pike present. (No ramp).

Fenster Lake (Ramsey County): 3 miles north, 4 miles east of Crary. Pike in fair numbers, with most fish more than 5 pounds. Low density perch population. (No ramp).

Ramsey County

Irvine-Alice Complex (Ramsey County): 4.5 miles north, .5 miles east of Churchs Ferry. Boat access conditions are currently very poor, as the make-shift boat launching site a few miles north of Churchs Ferry is unusable due to low water levels.

The walleye population in Lake Irvine is doing very well. They are abundant with many sizes available. Most are between 15 and 20 inches long, but larger individuals are present in good numbers as well.

Northern pike are very abundant in Lake Irvine. Most of the pike are medium-sized, but there are some larger fish present. Pike in Lake Irvine are under-utilized, so anglers should not be shy about keeping their limit of pike from this lake. In fact, the pike seem to be too abundant for their own good, as their body condition, or plumpness, has been declining, so keeping pike from this lake would actually be beneficial for the pike population as it may help reduce competition for food.

The numbers of yellow perch in Lake Irvine are low, but the few perch in the lake tend to be larger individuals.

The white bass numbers in Lake Irvine are low, but they are good-sized.

Fish populations in Lake Alice are similar to those in Lake Irvine. (No ramp).

Morrison Lake (Ramsey County): 3 miles east, 2 miles south of Webster. Typically has good winter pike fishing until oxygen levels decline. Most fish are less than 5 pounds. (No ramp).

Sweetwater Lake (Ramsey County): 3 miles east, 7 miles north of Devils Lake. Low winter oxygen levels may have caused a partial fish kill. (No ramp).

Ransom County

Dead Colt Creek (Ransom County): 5 miles south, 1 mile east, .5 miles north, .5 miles east of Lisbon. Abundant largemouth bass, bluegill and crappie. Some larger bass. (Fishing pier).

Lone Tree Lake (Englevale) (Ransom County): .5 miles north, 2 miles west of Englevale. Moderate number of perch. Pike present. (No ramp).

Mooringsstone Pond (Ransom County): .75 miles west of the city of Fort Ransom. Rainbow trout stocked annually. (No ramp).

Renville County

Lake Darling (Renville County): Strong northern pike, walleye and yellow perch, populations, and a few smallmouth bass. Black bullhead are extremely abundant and a serious management problem.
